Abraham and Isaac: God Will Provide

Episode 6 · Genesis 22:1–14 · for ages 2 to 6 · 7 minutes

The Bible story

22:7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? 22:8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. 22:13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. 22:14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovahjireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

Genesis 22:7, 8, 13, 14, King James Version

What we learn

- ✓ God asked Abraham to do something very hard, and Abraham trusted God.
- ✓ Isaac asked, “Where is the lamb?” Abraham said, “God will provide.” And God did: a ram, caught in a bush by his horns.
- ✓ God gives us what we need. One day God gave the very best Lamb of all, His own Son, Jesus.

Talk about it

1. What did Isaac carry up the mountain?
2. What did God give Abraham, caught in the bush?
3. What is something God gives you that you need?

Try this

Play “What do we need?”. Before a walk or a trip to the shops, ask your little one what you will need and pack it together: a coat, a snack, a drink. On the way, talk about how God gave Abraham just what he needed on the mountain, and say thank you to God together for one thing He gives you every day.

Then colour the free colouring page of the ram caught in the bush, and play “What do we need?” before your next walk.

Pray together

Thank you, God, that You give us everything we need. Thank you for Jesus. Help us to trust You, like Abraham. Amen.
