Isaac, the Promised Baby

Episode 5 · Genesis 18:1–15 and 21:1–8 · for ages 2 to 6 · 6½ minutes

The Bible story

18:10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. 18:14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. 21:2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. 21:6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

Genesis 18:10, 14; 21:2, 6, King James Version

What we learn

- ✓ God promised Abraham and Sarah a baby boy, even though they were very old.
- ✓ Sarah laughed, because she didn’t think God could do it. But nothing is too hard for God.
- ✓ God kept His promise: baby Isaac was born, just when God said. God always keeps His promises.

Talk about it

1. Why did Sarah laugh when God said she would have a baby?
2. How long did Abraham and Sarah have to wait for God’s promise?
3. What is something that seems too hard for you, but not for God?

Try this

Have a laughing picnic. Spread a blanket on the floor or in the garden, share a little snack, and take turns telling the silliest thing you can think of, like Mimi’s sheep that says “Moooo!”. Every time you laugh, remember that Isaac’s name means “he laughs”, and that Sarah laughed for joy when God kept His promise. At dusk, look out of the window together for the very first star.

Then colour the free colouring page of Sarah holding baby Isaac, and tell each other something silly to laugh at, like Mimi.

Pray together

Thank you, God, that nothing is too hard for You. Thank you for keeping Your promises, and for making us laugh. Amen.
