John Is Born

Episode 10 · Luke 1:57–80 · for ages 2 to 6 · 5½ minutes

The Bible story

[1:60] And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. [1:63] And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. [1:64] And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

Luke 1:60, 63, 64, King James Version

What we learn

- ✓ Old Elisabeth had a baby boy, just as God had promised, and everyone was happy with her.
- ✓ Everyone wanted to call him Zacharias, like his daddy. But Elisabeth said his name was John, and Zacharias wrote it down: “His name is John” (Luke 1:63).
- ✓ “He spake, and praised God” (Luke 1:64). As soon as Zacharias could talk again, he praised God. God keeps His promises, and He knows your name too.

Memory verse

“He spake, and praised God.”

Luke 1:64

Talk about it

1. How did Zacharias tell everyone the baby’s name?
2. What did Zacharias do when he could talk again?
3. God knows your name. How does that make you feel?

Try this

Write your names. Spread a little flour or sand on a tray (or use paper and a crayon), and help your child write or draw their name, like Mimi in the snow and Zacharias on his tablet. Then say together, “God knows my name!”, lift your hands like Zacharias, and say the memory verse: “He spake, and praised God” (Luke 1:64).

Then do the word search together.

Pray together

Dear God, thank You that You always keep Your promises. Thank You that You know my name. Help me praise You, like Zacharias. Amen.
